MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Office of Security's Second Quarterly Review

25X1 1. [] opened an interesting Office of Security quarterly review session with comments about the need for vigorous recruitment and training programs for OS. The recent newspaper advertising effort produced a substantial number of applicants for OS. He then discussed statistics on the changing and improving status of women in the Office of Security. On alien marriages, he indicated that it is now easier than in the past to stay in the Agency if married to an alien.

25X1 2. Polygraph research and training activities were briefed by [] chief instructor for polygraph training. The basic CIA polygraph training course has 355 school hours (95 more than required by the American Polygraph Association) and normally has four students. The short course is for outside-trained examiners and stresses CIA screening techniques. Future courses will provide advanced (two weeks) and operational training. Polygraph research is conducted in coordination with [] of ORD. Current contracted research consists of evoked cortical potential and FLIR/voice; future research will deal with countermeasures to post hypnotic suggestion. Inhouse research consists of remote cardio sensor, compressed rate, and EKG polygraph.

25X1 3. [] discussed unauthorized disclosure investigation. 25X1 Leaks to the media have doubled from FY 79 to FY 83. [] then provided statistics on unauthorized disclosures (by media sources, by reporter, and by classified sources compromised) from January 1983 to March 1984. Mr. Fitzwater asked that this briefing also be given to the DCI, DDCI, DDI, DDO, and DDS&T.
